Barracks Daily

ISSUE 1

Know your airplanes! Yesterday's aircraft was a C-130. What type of aircraft is this? (Sorry, yesterday we had a typo. The A-10f was actually an A-10.)

Safety Paranoia!!!

Cadets you need to hurry when going anywhere and you are not in a formation. However, this does not mean run!!! It is possible to quick walk, you do it daily when your mother says food or bath time! No more running to and from and definitely no more of this pleasant walking business!

Day Two

Way to go cadet!! That's your second day done! Now we are really going to get to business so I hope everyone is ready! Today we got some stuff done and even had a fun game of ultimate Frisbee to end our day, but there is one thing that is still bothering me. You need to be much louder in your jodies!!!!

Barracks Extras

Picture of the Day: please don't eat me!! Im only support staff!!

Mistake of the Day: not saluting an officer or senior member when outdoors and in uniform

Merits of the Day: We have one today!! Cadet Chief Master Sergeant Oxford showed excellent mess hall etiquette. Way to go chief!

Tip of the Day: While in the mess hall do not talk and look around!! Look at your food and eat!!!!

Joke of the day: We have two today, Alphar flight and Captain Gould almost killing a cadet with a Frisbee!!
